

Expedia Corporate Travel Offers Canadian Customers Increased Hotel Savings Through Expedia Corporate Rates

Delta Hotels Joins the Expedia Corporate Rate Program Among 1,700 Hotels Across North America to Deliver Competitive Room Rates and Benefits to Canadian Business Travellers

Toronto, ON. – June 11, 2007 – Expedia® Corporate Travel Canada, a full-service travel management company, today announced the launch of the Expedia® Corporate Rate hotel program for its Canadian customers. Building upon Expedia Corporate Travel's existing rich content, the corporate rate program is another way to make it easier for business travellers to find the best hotel for their specific needs with access to great savings, flexibility, and additional amenities.

Expedia Corporate Travel works independently with each of its Expedia Corporate Rate partners, including Delta Hotels, to establish a rate that is competitive to the hotel's most corporate-friendly rate. Expedia Corporate Rate properties are displayed with rich content and customized hotel information, and list extra features that are provided with the rate.

With more than 1,700 hotel partners across North America, the new Expedia Corporate Rate program not only supplements companies' existing corporate rate programs, but it also offers better hotel coverage when corporate rates are not available.
